Dear Sir:

The owner, The Procter & Gamble Company, of 100 percent interest in the instant application hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term of U.S. Pat. No. 6,534,174, issued Mar. 18, 2003, and of any patent granted on pending Application Number 10/390,214, filed on Mar. 17, 2003, as the terms of said patent and application are defined in 35 U.S.C. §154 and §173, and as the term of said patent is presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer and the term of said application may be shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant of any patent granted on said pending application. The owner hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the above-referenced patent and pending application are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration dates of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. §154 and §173 of the above-referenced patent and pending application, as the term of said patent is presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer and the term of said application may be shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant of any patent granted on said pending application, in the event that said patent and pending application later: expire for failure to pay a maintenance fee, are held unenforceable, are found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, are statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 C.F.R. §1.321, have all claims cancelled by a reexamination certificate, are reissued, or are in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.

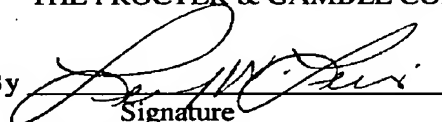

The undersigned is an attorney or agent of record.

Authorization is given to charge Deposit Account No. 16-2480 for the fee required under 37 C.F.R. §1.20 (d) of $110.00 for submission of this Terminal Disclaimer. A duplicate copy of this correspondence is enclosed to facilitate charging of the fee.
